INTeresting – 21 May 2019

Looking forward to the Scottish Champs this weekend – fingers crossed for good weather, and good luck to everyone going. In the meantime, a round up of what's happening:

News

- World Orienteering Day was last Wednesday, with lots of activities during the day, followed by a good run round Arthur's Seat in the evening. Angus Ivory led home a group of 5 Interlopers, in 3rd - 7th position in the Green. Full results here: https://www.esoc.org.uk/results-files/2019/0515_Holyrood/index.html. Great to see lots of Beavers out enjoying the evening – hopefully they will be back at future events.

- Don't forget the next Sprintelope in the Astley Ainslie (and environs) tomorrow – meet chez Carcas; full details at www.facebook.com/sprintelope. Under 16s must be accompanied.

Juniors Reminders

- JUNIORS: your club needs you! Please sign up for the Jamie Stevenson Trophy: Sunday 9 June. You should have had a separate email from Katherine (katherineATtusks.org.uk); replies appreciated asap, Wed 29th May at the latest.

- Entries (to be done by the schools themselves) close on 31 May for the Scottish Schools Orienteering Festival. If club members are supporting particular schools to go to the event, let Katherine know and she'll arrange some Twitter shout-outs.
