If you don't know how to get there, ask at events before or phone. Also a ll of the competent orienteers who are familiar with the areas have volunteered to give coaching, advice, technique practise, or just to follow you and perhaps help you learn about route choice etc. If you are new and don't know the faces, ask any orienteer if they can show you a member of Interlopers.

Club Champs A social evening with a difference at Selmuir Forest nr Kirknewton on Friday evening 12th June at 6.00. A handicap system will be used allowing all a nd sundry to challenge the good Guys in the club on either a long or short course. There will also be a novelty relay. If the weather is good we'll make a night of it but bring your own victuals. If weather is poor, then its back to the Frasers in Juniper Green. Bring your British 81 Champs for the orienteering clinic. Please let Dermod Ruddock know if you are coming so that he can prepare enough maps.

Sports Page

At the Premiere event of British Orienteering, the JK, Interlopers took 3 prizes in the Relays. The women retained the Women Open Trophy for a second year, the boys won the M17 Trophy and we came 3rd in the Short Open Men. Fantastic !!!! The Open Men team came 18th in the Long course against extremely good opposition. More details in the next N/L - was it Staminade or Ian Hendries SpagBog that did the trick ?

Harvester Trophy June 27/28 night relay at Guildford, nr London.
John Mitchell is coordinating. We need 7 runners plus manager/driver(s)/pilots.
To enter in time, let John know with £3 by 25th May.

Galloway 81

Scottish Relay Teams

On the numbers who phoned beforehand, the following teams have been entered. I have listed the selected teams but just put a string of names where a pool is available. The first named collects the money for their team and gives it to Meg Fraser (£1 or 70p per head)

- W Open Meg, Carol, Hilary
- M17 Tilling, Laing, Stoddart, Hyman
- M35 Vandersteen, Terry, White, Leach, Stobie
- M43 Heyworth, Shiach, Gardner (have already paid)
- M Open A: Doig, Fraser, Miller
- B: Hendrie, Mitchell, Ramsay
- C: Balfour, Kershaw, Ovens, Woolverton, Lamont, Sloan
- D: Guy, Hall, Guy

Vander Steen and Balfour should sort out their respective teams by the Saturday 2nd. It might be possible to enter more teams at this late stage but a lot depends on the state of the old crocks and cripples in the club.

See you at Craig y Barns Dunkeld on Sat 2nd helping and maybe even running.
