INTERLØPERS NEWSLETTER No. 47 May 1983

So. The Orienteering Season rises to its height, and the Interlopers year collapses to its end. The season of AGM's and championships is upon us. The S.E.Area, the Scottish, the British, and the Interløpers Championships; the Scottish, the B.O.F., and the Interlapers A.G.M's. What a climax! Orgienteering.

NOTES:

Minutes of the last AGM were, I believe, circulated shortly afterwards, but I will try to persuade Ken to have some more copies available at the meeting, so that everyone can contribute constructively to that pregnant pause when item 2 is mentioned and realistically try to pretend they are reading the Minutes and contemplating their profound truth.

Most committee members are willing to stand again, with a few exceptions: Scott would prefer to stand down; some people would like different jobs; the Editor is willing to stand again but would like to make clear that a replacement will very probably be necessary later this year; and... THERE MUST BE SOME FEMALE COMMITTEE MEMBERS!!

re no proposed amendments to the Constitution. Sigh!

INTERLØPERS ANNUAL DINNER

The AGM will adjourn to the Dinner Tables, probably at the Dragon Pearl, probably about 8.30 or 9 pm. Probabilities will probably be resolved by Andy Spenceley closer to the day, so please contact him to confirm details, especially if you can't come to the AGM. White tie and tails definitely NOT required; jeans and T-shirts more likely.

CALENDAR etc.

Much the same as last time, but with some corrections, particularly in the venues of the Lothian CATI's -- I hope no-one was misled too seriously by the wrong info (too much to hope that anyone actually READS this rot.). Ken Ovens has more information on venues, times, contacts etc. Pete Woolverton says he often has space in a minibus going to local events.

MISCELLANEOUS GUFF

More copies of the BOF book "Orienteering Training and Coaching" have been ordered, so contact Ian Lamont if you would like a copy of this at a bargain discount price.

Exclusive - planned Media Coverage!! The BBC series "Grange Hill" is to include one episode where a party of schoolchildren go orienteering. Filming is planned for the Summer, with screening in the Autumn. The script has been checked by BOF for technical accuracy!

I have some results etc, but these will have to wait until next issue. So finally SILVAN!!....

SENSE OF DIRECTION

I had the misfortune to lose my compass on the way to the first control during a recent Interlopers badge event, and decided to stop an M15 and ask the lad in which direction he was travelling. "I am not going South" he replied.
"Which way are you going then?" I asked. "East, or West" was the answer. "Can't you be more specific?" I queried.
"I am going West, or South" he said. "Please answer my simple question" I groaned in exasperation. "I am not going North, or South" came the reply. "I am confused!" I confessed. "Well, I have told the truth three times" claimed the evasive boy. "Is that so?" I answered sceptically. "Actually I have boy. only told the truth once." "Really." "Really, I have told the truth four times" he said, and with that continued hurrying into the forest.

I stood and pondered for a moment, and realised that if I was to make sense of his riddle, I had to assume that one of his last three statements was true, I then set off confidently in my desired direction.

Can you work out in which direction the M15 was travelling?
